

The 2018 Loretta P. Lacey Academic Leadership Award Winner

Lois McCloskey, DrPH, MPH

Associate Chair, Department of Community Health Sciences, Boston University School of Public Health
Associate Professor, Boston University School of Public Health, Department of Community Health Sciences and Boston University School of Medicine, Department of Pediatrics
Boston University School of Public Health

As described in her nomination letter, Dr. McCloskey has been a committed and dedicated leader to the field of MCH for the last 20 years.

She is a highly sought-after consultant at the city and state level for a range of MCH issues, has served as a member of the national faculty advisory group for the Association of Schools & Programs of Public Health, and has worked as a consultant to the World Health Organization (WHO) on the topic of maternal mortality.

"Dr. McCloskey persists in addressing complex issues without resorting to reductionism, and promotes reproductive justice and social equity in all aspects of her work."
