

Teaching Excellence and Teaching Innovation

Association of Teachers of Maternal and Child Health Annual Assembly

Sunday, November 16, 2014
10:00-11:30 am
New Orleans Convention Center, MCC 239

- Welcome
  - Ellen M. Daley, PhD (Out-going ATMCH President)
  - Martha S. Wingate, DrPH (In-coming ATMCH President)
    - Updates on the move from ASPPH to UAB in 2014

- “What Makes a Great Teacher?”
  - Results from the 2013 student questionnaires
    - E. Daley - Results of the questionnaire asking “What makes a good/bad teacher?” were provided via PPT presentation, which will be added to the ATMCH website. Potential future questions: “What & how do students want to learn?”, “What makes a good/bad student?”, “What makes a good/bad mentor/mentee?” Discussion followed.

- Loretta P. Lacey MCH Academic Leadership Award Winner, 2014
  - Presented by M. Wingate - Awarded to Diana Romero, PhD, MA - Associate Professor in the Department of Urban Public Health at Hunter College & the Department of Community, Society & Health of the Graduate Center at CUNY School of Public Health.

- ATMCH Activities - New and Improved!
  - Innovative Teaching Awards – A RFP will be distributed/posted soon
    - Mentoring Program – M. Wingate
  - MCHB Update
    - L. Kavanagh – There is a listserv maintained at the bureau for those interested in, but not currently funded by, the MCHB. Email her to be added to the list. The Schools of Public Health will soon be competing for 2015-2020 funding. The FOA is moving through the approval process. Some exciting changes are in the works. Everything affiliated with the MCHB will be able to be accessed through www.grants.gov (cfda 93.110).

- Teaching Practice Presentations
  - Faculty Presentation: Lois McCloskey, PhD (BUSPH)
    - The Diversity Scholars Program – A mentoring, community building program to support underrepresented minority students as they gain public health skills & grow in capacity for leadership. The PPT presentation will be added to the ATMCH website.
  - Student Presentation: Elizabeth Lockhart & Humberto Lopez (USF)
    - Applying New Teaching Competencies to an Undergraduate Sexual Health Course – The PPT presentation will be added to the ATMCH website.

- Conclusion, and thank you.
  - Martha S. Wingate, DrPH (ATMCH President)
  - Ellen M. Daley, PhD (ATMCH President, Retired)

Dedicated to Broadening Teaching Beyond the Classroom